

* overlapping circles gives us a way to measure radius
 * all sides are the same length.

(Reuleaux triangle - a surprisingly elegant shape that could be plotted out with string and a nail.)

curved sides, but equilateral triangle lies beneath.
 (look for this in windows of old buildings)

